Proclaiming Life in Death
Donald L. Deffner 1994

One Minute After You Die-Erwin W. Lutzer 2015-04-17 "One minute after you die you will either be elated or terrified. And it will be too late to reroute your travel plans." Death comes to all, and yet death is not the end. For someone, death is the beginning of one's bliss. In this latest edition of the bestselling book One Minute After You Die, Pastor Erwin W. Lutzer weighs the Bible's words on life after death. He considers: Channeling, reincarnation, and near-death experiences What heaven and hell will be like The justice of eternal punishment Trusting in God's providence Preparing for your own final moment Though the afterlife is shrouded in mystery, the Bible does peel back the curtain. Dr. Lutzer will help you understand what is on the other side. May the reality of eternity quicken and comfort you today.

Proclaiming the Judge of the Living and the Dead-Kai Akagi 2019-08-02 Kai Akagi considers the christological significance of Jesus' role in judgement in the speeches in Acts 10:34-43 and 17:1-22. Reading these speeches as part of the narrative of Luke-Acts with attention to scriptural use and influence, along with extended analysis of judgment figures in Jewish pseudepigraphal and Qumran literature, reveals that the scope of Jesus' judgment and the use of scriptural patterns in the speeches suggest his divine authority by associating him with God's final judgment at the resurrection. At the same time, his judgment identifies him as the appointed human messiah whom the speeches proclaim. While further tracing the contours and characteristics of messianism and mediatorial figures in Judaism contemporary with the beginnings of Christianity and the New Testament, this volume integrates study of the speeches in Acts and Lukan theology, early christology, and scriptural use and influence, whether direct and through the shaping of collective cultural knowledge.

A Pastor's Practical Guide to Funerals-Lee Franklin 2013-09-17 This straight-forward book integrates the pragmatic ‘how-to’ of the funeral process–especially in dealing with ‘difficult’ funerals–with the art of being a caring and healing presence before, during, and after the funeral. While conducting a funeral is one of the great privileges of ministry, pastors must be skilled and ready to guide grieving family and friends through the process of saying goodbye and burying a loved one. With sample services, prayers, sermon themes, and Bible readings, this book will help pastors hear, name, and integrate relevant illustration into a respectful story of the deceased’s life–a story that is appropriate to the particular circumstances of each situation. Contents include: Preparing for Death; Caring through Anticipated Death; Caring through Sudden Death; Meeting with Family before the Funeral Service; Creating the Funeral Service; Creating the Funeral Sermon; and Following up with Grievers

The Christian's Only Comfort is the sermonic exposition of the Christian faith, as indicated by its inclusion in both the Apostles' and Athanasian Creeds. But it has also been the subject of suspicion and scrutiny, especially from evangelicals. Led by the mystery and wonder of Holy Saturday, Matthew Emerson offers an exploration of the biblical, historical, theological, and practical implications of the descent.

"He Descended to the Dead"-Matthew Y. Emerson 2019-12-24 The descent of Jesus Christ to the dead has been a fundamental tenet of the Christian faith, as indicated by its inclusion in both the Apostles’ and Athanasian Creeds. But it has also been the subject of suspicion and scrutiny, especially from evangelicals. Led by the mystery and wonder of Holy Saturday, Matthew Emerson offers an exploration of the biblical, historical, theological, and practical implications of the descent.

Walking in the Prophetic and the Fear of the Lord-Rick Goral 2011-09-01 This book is not for spiritual sissies. It is not for the fainthearted. It is also not intended in any way to condemn or frighten anyone, but it is intended to set a fire in the midst of the modern church and call the children of God back to holiness and purity and the fear of the Lord. It is time to prepare our wedding garments. Revelation tells us that we are the ones who prepare our own garments. Revelation 19:7. "Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready." If you truly have a call of God on your life, you will very often find yourself in circumstances not only not of your own making, but also circumstances which are not in any way pleasant or comfortable. They are circumstances you never would have chosen for yourself. Yet, here you are and you are in the right square in the midst of them. God has a way of preparing His own to bring them to a place of humility. In this process He creates servants who have learned to be yielded, obedient and trustworthy. Psalm 24:3-5: Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who may stand in His holy place? God has a way of preparing His own to bring them to a place of humility. In this process He creates servants who have learned to be yielded, obedient and trustworthy. Psalm 24:3-5: Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who may stand in His holy place? Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood and has not sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the Lord And righteousness from the God of his salvation. Don't you think it's time?

Exploring and Proclaiming the Apostles'-Roger Van Harn 2004-09-14 Foreword by Geoffrey Wainwright Doctrinal preaching has fallen on hard times in recent years. Exploring and Proclaiming the Apostles' Creed seeks to stimulate renewed interest in -- and provide useful models of -- Christian proclamation that is truly rooted in the central tenets of the faith. Using the Apostles' Creed as a template for doctrinal, confessional preaching, this book draws together an ecumenical cast of respected biblical scholars and preachers who explain the creed and demonstrate its preaching possibilities. Each of the book's fifteen chapters consists of an essay that explores and illuminates one of the creed's articles of faith, followed by a scintillating sermon that models how that article can be preached as good news today. Proclaiming the Gospel of Life—Richard Whinfield 2009-01-01 Proclaiming the Gospel of Life is an obligation for all members of the Catholic Church. Whether protecting the unborn child or speaking out for the terminally ill, our aim must be not only to save lives, but to change hearts and minds: to transform our current 'culture of death' into the 'civilisation of love' willed by Christ.

Ethical Dilemmas in Church Leadership—Michael R. Milco Shares case studies on some of the most sensitive issues pastors and church leaders may have to deal with in their churches—child abuse, AIDS, infidelity, homosexuality, and unexpected pregnancies.

Sharing the Word through the Liturgical Year—Gustavo Gutiérrez 2009-05-01 The characteristic mission of Christians is proclaiming the gospel, the good news of the gracious love of God for every person but preferentially for the poor and excluded. Our greatest wish is that these pages will be useful to those who seek to meditate on the Lord's word and to share it with others. Gustavo Gutiérrez, the renowned Peruvian theologian, here shares the wisdom of a pastor and homilist in opening up the riches of scripture through the liturgical year. Covering all three cycles (A-B-C), Gutiérrez offers penetrating reflections on each of the Sunday lectionary readings. With brief exegesis and homiletic guide, Gutiérrez offers a perspective on sacred scripture that continually emphasizes its themes of liberation and love, and draws connections to the challenge of faithfulness in our time.

THE DEATH OF DEATH IN THE DEATH OF CHRIST—JOHN OWEN 2015-11-28 The Death of Death in the Death of Christ is John Owen's definitive work on the extent of the atonement. It is a polemical work, designed to show among other things that the doctrine of universal redemption is unscriptural and destructive of the gospel. It was called forth by the progress in England of Arminianism and the half-way house of Ansyrianism adopted by Baxter, Davenant and Usher.

Proclaiming Jesus—Thomas H. L. Cornman 2007-01-01 In the days immediately following 9/11, Joseph Stowell attended a special Chicago Prayer Breakfast. He was encouraged to learn there was much interest in God and spirituality among the attendees. He was troubled, however, by the subtle implication common among the speakers that day that Jesus, with His exclusive claims, was unimpressive. That, the broad diversity of religions in America, we now need to give up the 'traditions' that divide those of us who believe in God. Stowell left the breakfast even more determined to preach the centrality of Christ in the church. Proclaiming Jesus is a collection of essays, written by faculty of the Moody Bible Institute in honor of Dr. Stowell, that take up the message he proclaimed, making it clear that every area of church life and ministry is about Jesus.
